STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

Well done to 6th year Molly Beecher who has had recent success in creative writing. Molly was awarded 2nd Prize in The Oxford Classics Creative Writing Competition. The Competition is run by the University of Oxford's Faculty of Classics in collaboration with the Ashmolean Museum. The task was writing inspired by the ancient world. Participants chose an artefact from the Ashmolean Museum to write a piece about or from the perspective of the object. Molly also received Commended in the Mary Renault competition at Hugh's College, Oxford. Participants must submit a piece exploring the reception or influence of classical antiquity in a later era. Winners and commended entrants are then invited to a celebratory afternoon tea at St Hugh's College, Oxford.

GUIDANCE TEAM

We hope you all had a restful and refreshing Wellbeing Day on Friday and enjoyed the long weekend to recharge.

UCAS

The final school deadline date has passed for students applying to Oxford, Cambridge, and for any courses in Med, Vet and Dentistry in the UK. Students have finalised, paid and submitted their applications and the school will now work on the completion of predicted grades and teacher references.

RACE/DARE/HEAR

Students who require reasonable accommodations for the Leaving Certificate exams or have queries regarding Language exemptions, can book a meeting with Helen Casey.

LUNCHTIME TALKS

This Wednesday 30th September, a speaker from the UCD School of Business visits the school to present information on the B Comm, B Comm (International), Economics & Finance, Sustainability and Law & Business. Please bring your lunch:

4th and 5th years attend room H1-0 from 11am to 11.50am and 6th year students attend room H1-1 from 12.30pm to 1.20pm.

OPEN DAYS THIS WEEK

University of Galway: Saturday 3rd October 10am – 3pm.

With over 80 talks taking place across Arts, Business, Law, Science, Engineering, Medicine, Nursing, Health Sciences and Pharmacy studies. You will also get the opportunity to speak directly with course representatives and current students from your chosen courses at exhibition stands across multiple zones.

Queens University Belfast: Saturday 3rd October 9.30am – 3pm.

Explore what sets Queen's apart. You'll find out more about their courses, meet current students and staff, and get a real feel for student life. With Northern Ireland having the lowest student living costs, Queen's is one of the most affordable university destinations. Belfast is easy to get to, with frequent trains and 24-hour bus services from across the region.

Trinity College Dublin – Law school: Sat 3rd Oct 10am – 3:20pm

Are you interested in how law shapes our society, what it is about? Do you wonder about what it's like to study law at Trinity? If so, join Trinity College Dublin for their Law School Open Day, Edmund Burke, Arts Building. This is your chance to experience first-hand what it's like to be a law student at Ireland's leading university.

Please register online for the above Open Days and check out upcoming Open Days this year on the following page!

Have a lovely week ahead,
Your Guidance Team
