STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

Congratulations to 6th year Tom Hayden who is the 2026 winner of our annual Wellbeing Poetry Competition. Students were invited to submit their own poetry with the aim of promoting positivity. Read Tom's poem Winter Treasures below.

Winter Treasures

Walking through the frost-laden streets I hear,
The shovelling of snow by passers-by.
The sound of birdsong is ever near,
And the sun moves north in the winter sky.

Over my shivering shoulders I wrap
A red scarf to ward off the freezing sleet,
And with bitter-cold lips I start to lap
Up the brown contents of my coffee treat.

The warmth of the drink spreads straight to my core,
Flooding my body with heavenly heat.
My newly found strength has opened a door,
To the bright spring days that lie at our feet.

Tom Hayden

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

Well done to 4th Year Elliot Guest on his Highly Commended Delegate Award from BELVOMUN 2026 (Belvedere Model United Nations). Elliot represented Mozambique in the Ecology and Environment Committee. Delegates debated topics ranging from the ecological restoration of war zones to sustainable aviation and even digital pollution. Elliot distinguished himself from his peers with his focused ideas and adept discussions. An award richly deserved!
